

Commitment Letter

I hereby voluntarily apply to participate in The 2nd International Training Program on Pathogens and Biosafety Research Technologies, organized by your institution (Nov 15 – Nov 28, 2026). To ensure implementation and achievement of the program's objectives, I commit to the following:

Compliance with Training Discipline

- Strictly adhere to the course schedule, attendance policies, and classroom rules.
- Follow all accommodation rules and safety protocols during the program. Leaving the training team without authorization or engage in activities unrelated to the training is not allowed.

Adherence to Safety Regulations

- Strictly follow safety protocols in laboratories, field visit sites, and other designated areas.
- Properly use equipment and protective gear. Immediately report emergencies to the organizers and cooperate in resolving incidents.

Protection of Intellectual Property

- Refrain from copying, distributing, or sharing training materials for commercial purpose.

Commitment to Return on Schedule

- Return to my home country promptly after the program concludes and provide valid proof of return (e.g., boardingpass, custom stamp).
- If I fail to return as scheduled, I voluntarily relinquish reimbursement eligibility for international travel expenses (including airfare and accommodation) and accept all consequences.
